

Try Tag Rugby Franchise Owner / Manager

Location: Locations nationwide

Type: Self-employed Franchise Opportunity

Sector: Sport • Community • Business Ownership

This is a business ownership opportunity, not a salaried job

Your Rewarding Side Hustle Starts Here

Stop trading time for money in the evenings. Build a scalable, flexible and enjoyable side hustle that transforms your local community and provides additional income.

Try Tag Rugby already connects more than 11,000 weekly players and 900 teams across 33 UK locations during its peak season. We are now looking for passionate, people-focused individuals to launch new Regional Communities across the country.

Why Choose Try Tag Rugby

Proven Model Since 2009

Start part time (around 10 to 15 hours each week) and grow into a full-time business using a system that has worked successfully across the UK for more than fifteen years.

Real Financial Momentum

Mature franchisees running 36 weekly teams can reach annual turnover in excess of £100,000 and typically break even in around ten months.

Training and Onboarding

We support you from initial setup through to your first league night. This includes immersive training, practical on-field experience and ongoing guidance from our head office team.

200-Lead Guarantee

We will support your launch with targeted marketing and hands-on assistance to ensure you attract at least 200 qualified player leads within your first six months.

Purpose and Enjoyment

Become your own boss, build a thriving community and make a positive difference through sport.

What You Will Do

- Run your own Try Tag Rugby business and operate leagues and events in your exclusive franchise area.
- Build and lead an inclusive, social and active local community.

- Manage and grow your business with support from our head office team in areas such as marketing, operations and finance.

What You Will Need

- A passion for sport and people
- Strong communication and organisational skills
- Energy and motivation to build something of your own
- Local knowledge of your preferred location and surrounding areas
- The ability to make a modest initial investment or arrange financing

Who Is It Perfect For

We are looking for individuals who enjoy working with people and building communities. This opportunity is ideal for those with experience in sport, community engagement, customer facing roles or activity leadership, as well as anyone with strong interpersonal skills and a passion for helping others get active.
